Woke poll - How do you define someone who is "woke"

Results among Whites

Percent 'Very/Extremely often'

- When you see someone being taken advantage of due to their race or ethnicity, how often do you feel protective towards them?
- How often would you say that you have tender, concerned feelings for people from another racial or ethnic group who are less fortunate than you?
- How often would you say you try to better understand people of other racial or ethnic groups by imagining how things look from their perspective?
- Before criticizing somebody from another racial or ethnic group, how often do you try to imagine how you would feel if you were in their place?

What do you do with your privilege?

3 Things To reflect on

1. How do words and stereotypes affect our perception of certain groups?
2. What kinds of conversations should I be having with my students around race?
3. What actions can I take to stop perpetuating the stereotypes?
