EDUCATOR OLYMPICS

Objective

Connecting students (and staff) through a series of “Olympic” events that could be done in any classroom or PD.

PASS THE TORCH

TABLE TALK Warm-up:
If everything possible
were in the Olympics, which event would you win gold in?

If your goal is to lose five actual pounds by next weekend, I have some bad news: It's basically impossible to lose that much body fat in a week. Womp womp. Since it's such a short amount of time, even if you incorporate some healthy lifestyle changes (more on that later) the most you'll be able to lose is about a pound, says Wendy Leonard, RD, founder of Rhode Island Nutrition Therapy.
